

WEB AND MARKETING STANDARDS

Envelopments® Dealer/Designer agrees to abide by the following Web and Marketing Standards (hereinafter "Standards") established by Envelopments, Inc. for the representation of Envelopments® products through a website, or other forms or media, approved by Envelopments in writing. Dealer/Designer acknowledges that compliance with such Standards are required in addition to those presented in the Dealer Network Agreement ("DNA").

Upon the counter-signature of this Agreement by an authorized Envelopments representative, Dealer/Designer shall be granted an extension of the Design Studio 2.0 or Specifier Studio 2.0 license to include the limited use of certain trademarks and copyrighted materials of Envelopments® for the purposes of a website, or other forms or media, approved by Envelopments in writing. Said license will allow use of the Envelopments® trademarks, logos, icons and copyrighted material, including, images, photos and copy (the "Licensed IP"), solely for the purposes of promoting the Envelopments® products, and in the manner specified and approved by Envelopments, for the duration of one's active status as an Authorized Envelopments Dealer/Designer. Upon the termination or expiration of the Dealer Network Agreement with Envelopments, this license will immediately terminate. This License is contingent upon full compliance with the Envelopments® Media and Marketing Standards, Annex 1, and the Envelopments® Trademark and Logo Usage Standards, Annex 2, as provided at www.envelopments.com/legal and as may be modified by Envelopments as necessary under Notice to Dealer/Designer. Envelopments® reserves all rights and interest in the Licensed IP and shall control all use and representation thereof. Envelopments® further reserves the right to update or withdraw such License upon Notice as provided in the DNA.

Upon the signature of this Agreement by an authorized Dealer/Designer representative, Dealer/Designer shall be provided secure online access to the Licensed IP for use in marketing of the Envelopments® product line.

Dealer/Designer hereby acknowledges having read and understood the Envelopments® Web and Marketing Standards and it's Annex incorporated by reference at www.envelopments.com/legal.

In Witness Whereof, the parties hereto recognize the effective date of this Web and Marketing Standards Agreement as being retroactive to the effective date of the Dealer/Designer Network Agreement (DNA) previously executed between the parties:
